Garry Moore To Launch Own Program Wednesday Evening

Program Set From Chicago At 10 P. M. Via Blue Network; Nick And Nora Charles Find More Adventures

Garry Moore, the diminutive purveyor of hilarious nonsense, will launch his own show over the Blue Network, beginning Wednesday. A variety program of music and monkeyshines, the broadcast will be heard each week from 10 to 10:30 p. m. Entitled the Garry Moore Show, the program will originate in Chicago.

Garry, long known to afternoon dialers as the M. C. of Club Matinee's Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday sessions, will be supported in his new venture by a large company. Topping the cast will be Hugh Studebaker, creator of "Silly Watson," Danny Thomas, popular young M. C. with Chicago night club habitues, and Donelda Curry, versatile comedienne.

Imperturbable Nick Charles and his glamorous wife, Nora, always up to date, are picked up by a U. S. government official after their boat is blown from under them in the Caribbean during "The Thin Man" drama Wednesday, at 8 p. m.

It's toss and roll for awhile with Nora going off on her own as a cafe singer in a Central American port town and Nick figuring out ways and means to trap the spy ring operating in surrounding waters. With both their lives in jeopardy the Charleses encounter more than enough excitement for one evening as, against a background of South American music and tropical night life, they come thru for Uncle Sam and point up current newspaper headlines.

The first American appearance of Ann Moray, who has been heard in her native England in concerts with Sir Daniel Godfrey and other noted conductors, will be made at the Edwin Franko Goldman band concert from the Mall of Central Park, on Wednesday, at 9:30 p. m. over the Blue network.

She will sing the aria from "The Magic Flute" by Mozart. Miss Moray has studied in England, Germany, France and Italy.

Nelson Eddy has chosen David T. Shaw's "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean" as the patriotic selection for his program Wednesday at 8 p. m.

In addition, he will sing the four following songs: "On Parade," from Victor Herbert's "Sweethearts;" "I Heard a Forest Praying" by Peter DeRose; "Song of the Flea" by Modeste Moussorgsky, and "Cargoes" by Dobson.

LOVELY GROOMING BY SHORT-CUT WAY

Well-Turned Out Girl Gets Job

"Where does SHE get the time to look so glamorous?" unsuccessful job-seekers grumble. "I don't stand a chance."

Yet, in all likelihood, the beautifully-groomed girl doesn't "get the time." No one does today!

But if you know short-cut methods, in about 35 minutes a day you can not only care for grooming essentials — like bathing — but can care for the little extras that make all the difference.

For instance, you brush your hair of course, but dust WILL collect, giving a dingy look. To keep your hair clean and shining between shampoos just rub OFF the dust with a towel — every few brush strokes.

Then, if you apply face cream with both hands instead of one, you can cream face and neck in the time it may take now to cream just the face.

With the well-groomed girl, you know, a lovely complexion doesn't stop at the chin line!

To schedule your time for good grooming, see our new 32-page booklet. It tells quick, efficient ways to care for skin, hair, nails, hands and feet. Also suggests time-saving grooming routines for business girls, home women.

Send 10c (plus one cent to cover cost of mailing) for your copy of "The Quick Way To Smart Grooming" to The Lima News, Home Service, 635 Sixth Ave., New York, N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

HOCKING FAIR CANCELLED

LOGAN, O., July 15—(AP) — Hocking-co's 1942 fair has been cancelled to help the nation's rubber conservation drive but a junior exposition for 4-H club members, scouts and similar organizations will be held, fair officials reported today.

SOLDIER IS COMMENDED

UHRICHSVILLE, O., July 15—(AP)—Lieut. John C. Erskine, son of Mrs. William H. Erskine, formerly of Uhrichsville, has been commended by the Navy for his prompt, orderly and efficient action in the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

Famous Cartoon "Dumbo" To Open At State Thursday

Stars Of Screen And Radio Are "Voices" For Latest Disney Hit; Action Thriller Also Scheduled

Famous names of the screen and radio are the "voices" for the captivating new characters Walt Disney has created for "Dumbo" commencing Thursday at the State theatre. Ed Brophy, burly comedian, speaks as Timothy Mouse, Dumbo's pal. Cliff Edwards, who was Jiminy Cricket in "Pinocchio," talks Negro dialect as a raucous old crow. Radio's popular quartet, The King's Men, also are crows. Sterling Holloway gargles the dialogue of an addle-pated Stork. Swift action, spine-tingling thrills and a delightful romance are blended in the co-feature, "Torpedo Boat." The picture, which tells a roaring story of romance and adventure with the men who design and test the Navy's 70-mile-an-hour P. T. boats, co-stars Richard Arlen and blonde Jean Parker.

George Montgomery and John Sutton only have eyes for lovely Maureen O'Hara and the pair battle it out for her favor in the stirring tale of heroism and romance, "Ten Gentlemen From West Point," now at the Quilna theatre.

"Stardust On the Sage," latest Gene Autry starrer now showing at the Lyric theatre, is nothing if not melodious. Ten popular melodies are featured, among them: "When the Roses Bloom Again," "Goodnight Sweetheart," "You'll Be Sorry," "I'll Never Let You Go," "Perfidia," "Wouldn't You Like to Know,' and a medley consisting of "Home On the Range," "You Are My Sunshine," "Deep in the Heart of Texas," and "Roll On Little Dogies."

Ray Milland, Paulette Goddard and John Wayne share stardom in Cecil B. DeMille's spectacular Technicolor picture "Reap the Wild Wind," the film now at the Ohio theatre. Among the featured players in this lusty adventure yarn are Raymond Massey, Lynne Overman, Robert Preston, Susan Hayward, Charles Bickford, Walter Hampden, Martha O'Driscoll and Janet Beecher.

Shirley Temple is pert and gets kissed in her newest screen opus, "Miss Annie Rooney," now at the Sigma theatre.

"Dudes Are Pretty People," the co-feature, is a gay comedy romance with Marjorie Woodworth, Jimmy Rogers, Noah Beery, Jr., Paul Hurst, Marjorie Gateson, Russell Gleason, and Grady Sutton in the stellar role.

A hillbilly romance that goes astray forms the theme of "The Bashful Bachelor," the new Lum 'n' Abner picture at the State which brings those two popular radio favorites back to the screen in what is said to be an unusually hilarious vehicle. Also on the State screen is "Rudyard Kipling's Jungle Book" starring Sabu.

The weather bureau bought more than 3 million cubic feet of helium from meterological balloons in 1941.

SERVICE MEN MAY SEE SHOW WITHOUT COST

All members of the armed forces of the United States who appear in uniform will be admitted to the midway of the Great Lakes Exposition free of charge Wednesday, it was announced by the management.

Each Wednesday night is called "Army and Navy Night" by this show as they contribute 10 per cent of all gross receipts to the Army and Navy Relief every Wednesday.

The show is appearing all this week at the Kibby-st show grounds.

JEWELER WILL TREAT KIDDIES AT SHOW HERE

The inimitable Bernard Brender of Kay's Jewelry Store is at it again!

Living up to his much-cherished slogan, "Kay's, as usual does the unusual," Brender announced Wednesday that he has made arrangements with the management of the Great Lakes Exposition to treat all of the children of the community to a special matinee at the showgrounds on Saturday afternoon.

Plans completed with the management of the carnival company gives the jeweler, who likes to do the "unusual" the privilege of distributing 10,000 tickets to the children of Lima and vicinity.

The tickets will admit school-age children to the midway free of charge and also will give them each a free ride on one of the many thrilling riding devices.

The ticket also is a half-fare ticket for the youngsters which allow them to ride the other rides and visit the shows for half price.

As guests of honor the children of the County Home will be treated to a free ride to the midway on one of the Great Lakes Exposition's huge trucks and will be permitted to ride on all of the rides and visit all of the shows.

An ample supply of peanuts and popcorn, together with the usual soda water also will be supplied the children from the home.

The free tickets being distributed by Brender will be available at his store Wednesday afternoon and may be had merely for the asking.
