

'Kitty' Is Film Feature Opening at Ohio Friday

Gay and sparkling as a glass of champagne, "Kitty," with Paulette Goddard and Ray Milland, will open at the Ohio theatre Friday.

The film scintillates with wit and mischievous merriment and has a script to match the brilliance of some of the most dazzling sets and costumes ever seen on the screen. It's ultra-modern comedy is told against the magnificent pageantry of 18th century London.

Scheduled to bow out Friday at the Quilna are the two films "Tonight and Every Night" with Rita Hayworth and Lee Bowman and "Greenwich Village Follies" with Don Ameche and Vivian Blaine. Opening will be "The Renegades" with Randolph Scott and Ann Richards, also "They Meet Again" with Joan Fontaine and Mark Stevens, also "They Meet Again" with Joan Fontaine and Mark Stevens. All Peace will have the starring role in the co-feature "One Exciting Week."

"The Blue Dahlia" with Alan Ladd will begin an engagement at the Sigma Saturday. Now showing are "Badman's Territory" with Randolph Scott and Ann Richards. Also featured is "Ding-Dong Williams," both held over by popular request.

"From this Day Forward" opened at the State Thursday, bringing with it one of the most intriguing and true-to-life stories ever displayed in film form. Joan Fontaine and Mark Stevens, a newcomer to the screen colony, have the leading roles.

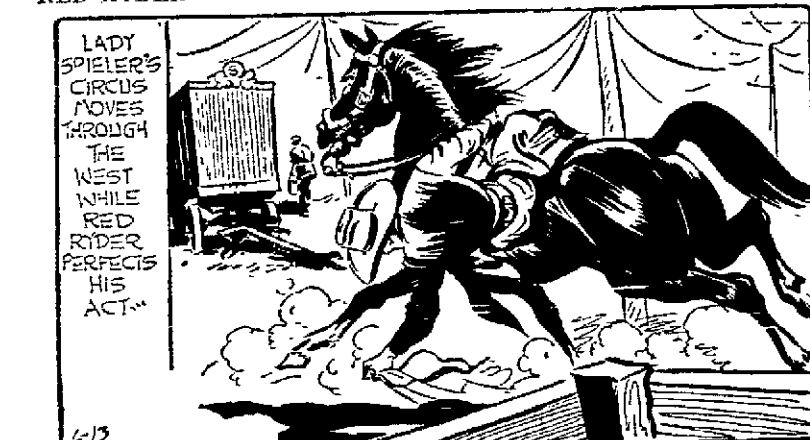

"Caravan Outdoor Trail" and "Gay Cavalier" are the two features currently billed at the Lyric. Coming Saturday midnight will be "Man from Music Mountain" and "Bewitched."

Bob Livingston has the leading role in the film, "Wolves of the Range," now showing at the Allen. Sharing the bill is "Crime Inc."

"Youth on Trial" with Cora Sue Collins and David Reed and "Prison Ship" with Robert Lowery are the two current features at the Lima Drive-In while "Delightfully Dangerous" with Constance Moore and Ralph Bellamy provides the film fare at the Gloria Drive-In.

BUILDINGS TO BE SOLD
RAVENNA, June 13—(AP)—Some 120 surplus buildings at nearby Ravenna arsenal will be sold this month, Col. S. R. Stirling, commanding officer, reported today.

'Too Many Smiths' Is Title For 'Suspense' Mystery Play

"Too Many Smiths" spoil the plot that's brewing when Hume Cronyn stars on "Suspense" at 7 p. m. Thursday over CBS.

Cronyn will be heard as a crooked janitor who learns in advance that Pat Smith of Baltimore will be announced as the winner of a $25,000 contest. Cronyn promptly moves to Baltimore, kills Smith and assumes his identity. Before the cash is paid out, however, he discovers that there are more Pat Smiths than he can shake an ax at. He gets what's coming to him, but it's not $25,000.

Amy Arnell sings "Ashby de la Zoch" and Bud Abbott and Lou Costello put in a bad half hour trying to figure out what she's singing about in the comedy broadcast over NBC at 9 p. m. Thursday.

Edward Everett Horton joins the Music Hall summer show as a regular starting at 8 p. m. Thursday over NBC. He'll team up with Eddy Duchin, the King Cole trio and Milena Miller, who have been carrying the program while waiting for Horton to finish his. The lure of a generous fee from a playboy-gambler prompts private investigator Richard Rogue (Dick Powell) to take the man's case, but the profligate client is found dead when Rogue calls at his home during the "Rogue's Gallery" episode at 6:30 p. m. Thursday over CBS.

Just to be different, Dick Haymes and Helen Forrest welcome vacations from reading, writing and "rhythmic with 'Schooldays,' joined in by Gordon Jenkins' orchestra, the Four Hits and a Miss and the 20-voice chorus on the "Dick Haymes Show" at 8 p. m. Thursday over CBS.
