

'Big League' Pictures Keep Pace With Times

With this fast moving world comes the fact that things must be done to keep up the pace. Far be it from the movies to lose stride with the time as you will see from the movies slated for today the films are in the "big league."

A tender love story is "I'll Be Seeing You," now showing at the Ohio theatre. Sharing the top honors are Ginger Rogers, Joseph Cotten and Shirley Temple.

The story of Frederic Chopin's musical career is told in the film "Song to Remember" playing at the Quilna theatre. Merle Oberon plays the role of George Sand, the famous novelist of the day.

Sizzling is a word which almost perfectly describes the picture "Belle of the Yukon" currently showing at the Sigma theatre and starring Randolph Scott, Gypsy Rose Lee and Dinah Shore. The picture is in technicolor and all in all, is top entertainment.

If it's mystery you want, then you'll get it at the State theatre. The film is "Murder, My Sweet" with Dick Powell, Claire Trevor and Anne Shirley.

Jewels are all right but when they become so valuable that they are likely to be stolen then something should be done. Of course, the intricate means by which the stolen goods are smuggled away is very interesting and in the picture, "Shadow of Suspicion," at the Lyric theatre, very amusing.

'I Sustain The Wings' Program To Feature Gala Musical Show

NBC's "I Sustain The Wings," produced in cooperation with the AAF, will present a program of new and old musical hits Saturday at 6 p. m., Lima time, over WFAP.

Two senators—delegates to the United Nations Security conference in San Francisco—Tom Connally of Texas, chairman of the foreign relations committee, and Warren R. Austin of Vermont, on NBC's "Our Foreign Policy," at 6 p. m. Saturday will discuss "Chapultepec and San Francisco."

The workings of the Army's rehabilitation program, as applied to a soldier who returns to the farm after his honorable discharge

DRAMATIC MUSICAL—Merle Oberon plays the strong-willed, novelist-feminist George Sand whose turbulent love affair with the great composer, Frederic Chopin (played by the Cornelia Wilde), is celebrated in the technicolor picture "A Song to Remember," currently co-starring Merle Oberon and Paul Muni, as Chopin's music master, at the Quilna theatre.

SKY WAR—A story of the men who found faith amid the battle-torn skies over China is the thrilling picture, "God Is My Co-Pilot," coming to the Ohio theatre Friday.

FLOOD CONTROL SOUGHT

PORTSMOUTH, O., Apr. 14—(AP)—Mayor John M. Salladay last night called a citizens' committee meeting to formulate plans for combating future flood emergencies. Purpose of the organization is to correct all problems and obstacles which arose in last month's flood when sand barricades saved the city despite a 64.9-foot river stage.

It takes 36 times as many men working in factories today to keep a soldier in the field as it did in Napoleon's time.

Blizzard Hits In Northwest

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Apr. 14—(UP)—A "typical" April blizzard swept across parts of Wyoming, Colorado and Nebraska today, blocking roads in Wyoming with snow as much as 22 inches deep in some places and endangering livestock.

Wyoming had the heaviest snowfall. Twenty-inches was reported at Lander, 19 at Douglas and 14 at Casper where 35 persons were reported stranded at a night club 12 miles from the city.

The storm, accompanied by high winds, covered an area 300 miles along the continental divide and extended eastward about 150 miles.

ACHIEVEMENT

GRANVILLE, O., Apr. 14—(AP)—William Cummings, slightly-built Denison university freshman from Hammondsport, N. Y., worked for two and a half hours yesterday to climb 60 feet up a flag pole so the flag could fly at half staff in memory of President Roosevelt. The pole rope broke last week.

3,000 Face Idleness In Firestone Strike

AKRON, O., Apr. 14—(AP)—Company and union officials scheduled another conference today as a stoppage at Firestone Tire and Rubber Co.'s plant No. 1 threatened idleness for 3,000 employees.

Federal Labor Conciliator Paul W. Fuller said a union-management conference yesterday failed to reach an agreement. A CIO United Rubber Workers representative said 335 Negro millroom workers walked off their jobs yesterday protesting the company ignored seniority in hiring workers for more desirable jobs.

Management spokesmen denied the union's assertion and reported lack of milled stock had halted mixing and other machines.

IN MEMORIAM

At this meeting of the LIMA REGIONAL INDUSTRIAL UNION COUNCIL C. I. O., LIMA, OHIO, assembled the thirteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Forty Five:

WHEREAS: It has been the will of Almighty God that our President and friend FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT be called from his earthly labors and away from the circle of his family and the company of his friends into the life hereafter: and

WHEREAS: We extend to the sorrowing Widow and Family our sincerest condolence and sympathy: and

WHEREAS: Our President FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT, loyal to the Faith of his Fathers, trusting in Justice of Almighty God, rich in the love of his Fellow men, and generous in his contacts with Humanity, was ever high in our regard and will so ever remain.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: THAT, WE DO HERE AND NOW DEDICATE OURSELVES ANEW TO THE NOBLE IDEALS OF FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT. AND INSPIRED BY HIM, CONTINUE THE STRUGGLE WITH RENEWED VIGOR, TO ENDEAVOR TO BRING TO HIS BELOVED NATION THOSE BLESSINGS WITH WHICH HE ENTERED INTO THE LIFE EVERLASTING.

Passed unanimously by the members assembled and ordered into the permanent record.
