

Top Movies To Usher In Month Of July Here

'Conflict' Is One Of Year's Best At Ohio

Beginning the month in a bang-up sort of way, Lima's theatre marquees will be graced with some extremely fine movies this Sabbath. The month of July brings forth the celebration of Independence Day and Lima is starting that month well.

One of the most outstanding screen offerings of the year is currently showing at the Ohio theatre titled, "Conflict." Starring Humphrey Bogart, Alexis Smith and Sydney Greenstreet, the film puts forth excellence in both characterization and plot.

At the Quilna theatre, "Counter-Attack" one of the finest productions to be made concerning the struggle of the Russian guerrillas against the Nazi onslaught, is currently showing. The novel from which this movie was made was written before the Russians entered the war.

An unusual film which is currently showing at the Sigma theatre is "Escape In The Desert" with Helmut Dantine, Philip Dorn and Jean Sullivan as its principal characters. Telling of some escaped Nazi war prisoners, the picture also tells of a girl's ambition to see the world.

Eddie Bracken joins the Navy in order to save himself from feminine wiles in the picture "Bring On The Girls" now playing at the State theatre. Included in the cast are Sonny Tufts and Veronica Lake who help add more hilarity to the already fantastic situations. Sharing the billing is "High Powered."

Monday will bring the film, "She's A Sweetheart" to the Lyric theatre. The picture, which tells the story of a GI romance will be co-featured with the film "Stagecoach To Monterey."

"MUSICAL COMEDY"—Jimmy Lloyd, Jane Frazee and Larry Parks go to town in the song and dance number, "Peggy the Pin-Up Girl," in "She's A Sweetheart," swinging and bringing its warm-hearted story of a GI canteen to the screen of the Lyric theatre, Monday.

"TENSE"—Paul Muni is starred with Marguerite Chapman who is featured in the tense and suspenseful drama about a raid by Russian paratroopers on German-held territory, "Counter Attack," which is now playing at the Quilna theatre.

Nitelife Guide

ALPINE VILLAGE—Karl Krooko and his bandmen furnish the musical background for dancing come week-ends. A popular juke-box ably performs the chore of other evenings.

ALPHA NITE CLUB—Len Huston's melodies are a big attraction here. Dancing in the vogue moderne goes on six nights of the week.

MAYFAIR LOUNGE—Luxurious booths in pale blue leather and a well-stocked back-bar makes this a popular rendezvous. The victrolas are on the excellent side.

A & A CAFE—Here is a pioneer Lima clubber where robust enjoyment is much in evidence with both management and patrons joining in the general hilarity.

WINE BAR—Copious quantities of wines and beers are on tap for carry-out purposes or premises consumption.

IMPERIAL CAFE—Genial Harry Minton is the popular host here, serving a goodly percentage of Lima's drink-minded nites.

STONE'S GRILL—An on the Public-sq oasis with one of the longest mahogany in town.

ADAM'S CAFE—Focal point for the south Limaites and their friends, bubbling with conviviality and the hail-fellow well-met atmosphere.

LOUIE'S NITE CLUB—Friendliness is the theme here in the true north-end tradition.

COURT CAFE—Long, tall frosty gin drinks are attracting the after-the-cinema crowds here.

NEWYORKER RESTAURANT—"Chicken in the Basket" still maintains the No. 1 spot on the variegated menu. Suitable appetizers are provided by the conscientious management.

WALDO GRILL—They are featuring a salad plate here that tempts the summer-jaded appetite.

BLINKING OWL CLUB—Round and square dancing occupies the popular spotlight here.

ROXY BAR—Tom and Evens Pecos perform the hosting ceremonies here. Plenty of drinking whiskey.

ANDY'S CAFE—Business men's lunches and wine to take home are big features.

'Topper' In Guest Star Spot; Baffling Murders Chill Tale

Roland Young, veteran comedy star of stage, screen and radio and known for his "Topper" roles, will be Jerry Wayne's guest on the romantic young baritone's "Jerry Wayne Show" over WJZ Sunday at 8:30 p. m.

A whole series of baffling murders, tied up with the fairy tale, "Hansel and Gretel," provide the background for the lovable Pat and Jean Abbott's newest adventure, "The Case of the Canary Yellow Sack," to be heard on "The Abbott Mysteries" Sunday at 6 p. m. over WOR.

Ruth Hussey, brilliant MGM star, occupies the guest spotlight on the "Silver Theatre" broadcast heard over WABC Sunday at 6 p. m., in an original radio drama by True Boardman, "Bright Shadow."

How one American soldier celebrated V-E Day, lying wounded behind the enemy lines on Okinawa and pretending to be dead to escape Jap patrols, will be related by Elden Westley on "Your America," Sunday at 4 p. m. over WOR.

To save time scald dishes with boiling water and leave them on rack to dry instead of wiping them dry.
